

PRESIDENT

The Board of Trustees and its Presidential Search Committee invite nominations and expressions of interest for the position of president. The position becomes available on or about July 1, 2009.

Enrolling approximately 1,000 students, Defiance College has been nationally recognized for its successful efforts to implement models of civic responsibility and service learning. Ranked among the top tier of comprehensive colleges in the Midwest by U.S. News and World Report, the institution has likewise been recognized by The Princeton Review as one of only 81 colleges in the United States offering outstanding programs of community involvement. Defiance has also been selected as a “character-building college” by the John Templeton Foundation. The college offers over 40 undergraduate and graduate programs.

Additional information about the search, the process for engagement, and the institution may be found at www.defiance.edu/presidentialsearch.html.

The search is being assisted by:

Dr. Bruce T. Alton, Senior Consultant
Academic Search, Inc.
202-262-8250 or bta@academic-search.com

Defiance College is an Equal Opportunity Employer and encourages the candidacies of women and persons of color.