Rose-Hulman's Aning Named HCAC Men' Soccer MVP

GREENWOOD, IN – Rose-Hulman's Yaw Aning (Rochester, MN/Century) has been named the 2006 Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference Most Valuable Player. The senior defender guided the Engineers to a second-place finish in the HCAC standings this season and a school record 15-4-1 record.

Aning led the Rose defense this season, being the backbone of the Engineer defense. As a team, the Rose-Hulman defense only surrendered 17 goals in 20 games for a .84 goals against average. In conference play, the defense only allowed three goals in eight games played for a .38 goals against average, ranking second best in the HCAC. The senior back was a three-time all SCAC selection, twice first team, before his debut season in the HCAC. The Engineers advanced to the championship match of the HCAC tournament before falling to Transylvania University, 3-0.

Manchester's Brian Woods (Carmel, IN/Westfield) has been selected as the 2006 HCAC Freshman of the Year. Woods, a defender for the Spartans, was tied for third on his team with five goals and also added four assists. He notched two assists in conference play to rank tied for ninth among the leaders. Woods helped the Spartans complete the conference portion of their schedule with a 3-4-1 record. MC finished 9-7-1 overall this season.

Hanover head coach Craig Jones has been named the 2006 HCAC Coach of the Year. Jones, in his fourth year at the helm, guided the Panthers to a third place conference finish and an appearance in the HCAC tournament. Hanover finished the conference season 5-2-1 and fell to Rose-Hulman in the conference tournament's semi finals. This is Jones first HCAC Coach of the Year award.

15 players join Aning and Woods as all-HCAC First Team members. Those players include Anderson's Tyler Hussey (Sr., Indianapolis, IN) and Travis Jones (Sr., Gahanna, OH), Bluffton's Nate Flath (So., Wadsworth, OH), Hanover's Jeremy Owens (Sr., Batesville, IN), Manchester's Parker Swanson (Jr., Elgin, IL) and Chris Rowe (So., Belleville, MI), Rose-Hulman's David McIlwaine (Sr., Indianapolis, IN), Matt Trowbrige (Jr., Fort Collins, CO), and Eric Hoiland (Sr., Westminster, CO), Transylvania's Matt Burton (Sr., Nicholasville, KY), Ryan Wood (So., Versailles, KY), Matt Karaffa (Jr., New Albany, IN), Ryan Dale (Jr., Cincinnati, OH), Matt Vogel (Jr., Lexington, KY) and Marc Frank (Sr., Lexington, KY).

The all-HCAC Second Team is listed below.
