Alden Lawrence enters his second season at the helm of the Yellow Jacket soccer program after spending one season as men's and women's head coach at Bethany College. Lawrence spent two years as an assistant head coach for men's soccer at The University of Findlay in Findlay, Ohio. In 2003, Lawrence helped to guide Findlay to a Great Lakes Regional Championship en route to an appearance in the NCAA Division II Final Four. Prior to coming to Findlay, Lawrence spent two years as a youth development officer at the senior club level with the Queen's Park Football Club in Glasgow, Scotland.

Quanni Franklin begins her second year as Assistant Coach for DC Women's Soccer.

Franklin has experience in the HCAC, having graduated in 2006 from Manchester College after a distinguished career as a Spartan student-athlete. She lettered all four years and was a three-time HCAC Athlete of the Year for javelin and discus. During her senior year, Franklin was the HCAC Field Events Athlete of the Year, as well as the Track & Field MVP for Manchester. In addition, she holds school records for discus and javelin and the HCAC record for javelin.

A native of Indianapolis, Franklin was a tri-athlete at Broad Ripple High School, lettering in basketball, softball, and track.
