THE POSSIBILITIES AT HOMECOMING

Take a look back at a successful Homecoming 2011

Dedication of the new George M. Smart Athletic Center highlighted this year's Defiance College homecoming festivities. It was a week of celebration with many alumni groups returning to campus to reminisce about the past and share in the excitement of today's DC. From recognition of alumni accomplishments to the first glimpses of a much-anticipated field house, there was plenty to celebrate!

Receiving 2011 Alumni Achievement Awards were: Joe Dawson, class of 1950; John McHugh, class of 1965; Shaune Skinner, class of 1975; Daniel "Doc" Daugherty, class of 1974; and Ron Ehresman, class of 1965. Maggie Maloy, class of 2001, was the Young Alumni Service Award recipient.

Hall of Fame inductees included Tammy Lee Parker, class of 1987; Walter Richard Turner, class of 1982; Stanley J. Meinen, class of 1985 and Jeff Boulton, class of 1984.

Also honored as Schaufler Legacy Award winners were Carol Smerz, CEO of South Community, Inc. and Margaret Mills, chair of the Defiance College Schaufler Advisory Board and combined staff member of Eastern Ohio Association and Western Reserve Association.

DC seniors Tara Miller and Joemese Scott were crowned this year's Homecoming queen and king.
